

LOUISVILLE TIMES.

J. HENRY S. BURKE & JOHN C. NOBLE, EDITORS

CITY OF LOUISVILLE.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1857.

THE fire Saturday night, destroyed a frame building on an alley between Walnut and Madison and Jackson and Hancock streets.

The Evansville Journal says that the very best coal can be bought in the vicinity of that city at eight cents a bushel.

Mr. W. C. Kidd, late Marshall of this city, died about 9 o'clock Sunday night.

A prize of two hundred dollars has been awarded to the Mechanics' Institute of this city, for sending the largest list of subscribers to the Scientific American.

The weather continues quite cold here. At Pittsburgh and Wheeling it has been exceeding.

Anthony Burns, the hero of the famous slave rendition case, is now delivering a series of lectures in Cleveland, Ohio.

PAYING THE FIDDLER.—The recent ball at Savannah, in honor to the Commercial Convention, cost $10,000.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—During the cold weather last week a negro man was frozen to death at Col. T. T. Sorby's, near Panoa, Mississippi.

Brannan's Art Union Drawing came off on Saturday evening. The prizes were drawn by Wm. Short, one; N. Longworth, two; R. T. Durrett, one; and J. D. Pope, one.

The ice crop promises to be most abundant. There will be no lack of ice-lemonades next summer, if we all don't freeze to death this winter.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—One hundred and forty-three railroad accidents have occurred during the year, involving the loss of 195 lives, and the wounding of 629 persons.

COAL.—We understand that the price of coal was, yesterday, raised to fifty-six cents per bushel, and that it is exceedingly difficult to obtain it at those figures.

COUNSEL TO BE REMEMBERED.—The following from the Nashville Union, although calculated for Tennessee, may be applied with advantage to any meridian in the Union:

We have not hesitated frankly and plainly to declare our adherence to the cause of Freedom, or, a nomination by a Democratic Convention is equivalent to an election by the people, yet the Legislature may be lost by the loss of a single Democratic county. We have the strength to secure both houses, if we do not permit ambitious aspirants, thinking more of personal aggrandizement than of the welfare of the country, to defeat us. A single Democratic will submit to injustice sooner than risk the defeat of his party. He will act out the patriotic saying of the revolutionary father, "It is no time to indulge private griefs when the enemy is in front." We are secure of a majority when, and only when, the policy is recognized and acted up, the party of rivalry is the candidate for the final offices, and the man in convention is to be the final judge in the matter. An experience of nearly twenty years in contests in Tennessee enables us to say that our principles would have been represented by a Democratic Legislature four-fifths of the time since 1837, but for mere personal conflicts. Men and brethren! we must not sacrifice such conflicts in 1857.

PAST PROGRESS OF CHRISTIANITY.—The following tabular statement, a conjectural but probable representation of the progressive increase of Christians in the world, is attributed to Sharon Turner:

HORRIBLE WIT.—The New Orleans Delta says of Albert Pike, in his speech at the recent Commercial Convention: "Honey may have dropped from his tongue, as in the case of Homer's Ulysses, but the true Southern men assembled at Savannah believed it to be molasses of an inferior brand."

THEATER.—Crowded houses continue to greet those great and admired comic players—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence. The fascinating Mrs. Florence enlists all hearts in her favor, while the style of Mr. Florence's acting seems to be appreciated by everybody.

There will be a meeting of citizens at the Merchants' Exchange this evening to take into consideration the affairs of the Nashville Railroad. It is understood that this meeting is of the citizens of Louisville and not of the Chamber of Commerce. Every one who feels an interest in the subject to be discussed is expected to be present.

On the score of economy Dr. Urban's Interstate's Hope at $10 a package is much cheaper than whisky at 50 cents a gallon; for he who drinks a gallon of whisky always wants more, while he who uses a package of the Hope wants neither Hope nor whisky again. Sent by mail for $10. Raymond & Patten are the agents No. 74 Fourth street.

AN EDITOR IN HEAVEN.—An exchange, under the above head, makes some friendly comments upon the demise of a contemporary. He does not seem to doubt but that the editor went straight to Heaven. Our experience tells us that the similitude of the difficulty attendant upon a man's going through the eye of a needle, etc., would apply with equal force to most of the editorial fraternity in this section; but here he:

Are we not also glad that such an editor is in Heaven? There the cry of "more copy" shall never again fall upon his distracted ears. There will no more be abused by his political antagonists, nor shall he be a demon to promulgate. There he shall be no more used as a ladder for the aspiring to kick down as soon as they reach the desired height, and need him more. There, he shall be able to see the immense masses of mind he has moved, all unknowingly as unknown as he has been; during his life. There he shall be a man of God, who will find all his articles credited, not a peal of thunder stolen and there shall be no horrid typographical errors, to throw him into a fever. We are glad the editor is in Heaven.

MEMPHIS OF GEN. JACKSON AND J. Q. ADAMS AT PRESIDENT MONROE'S LUNCHEON.—The following account of the rencontre between General Jackson and John Q. Adams, at President Monroe's levee after Adams' election over Jackson for the Presidency, by the House of Representatives, is taken from Peter Parley's "Recollections of His Lifetime."

"I shall pass over other individuals present, only noticing an incident who respects the two persons in the assembly who most of all others engaged in the contest. On the 1st of December, the elect, Gen. Jackson, the defeated, is changed, in the course of the evening, that these two persons, involved in the throng, approached each other from the opposite directions, yet without knowing it. Suddenly, as they were almost together, the persons around, seeing what was to happen, let out a shout of instinct. Mr. Adams was with a clergyman, stood up in one of the cars, and, in the presence of the passengers, and called to the clergyman, 'How do you do, Mr. Adams? I am a poor man, but I have a lady on my arm.' The clergyman, who was a good old man, said, 'How do you do, Mr. Adams? I give you my left hand, for the right, you see, is devoted to the fair. Do you want to be seated?' Mr. Adams was gratified, and heartily said, 'I am indeed a poor man, but I have a lady on my arm.' They looked at each other for a moment, and then General Jackson moved forward, and reaching out his long arm, said, 'How do you do, Mr. Adams? I give you my left hand, for the right, you see, is devoted to the fair. Do you want to be seated?' Mr. Adams was by himself, General Jackson had a lady on his arm, and she was a good old woman, and she said, 'How do you do, Mr. Adams? I give you my left hand, for the right, you see, is devoted to the fair. Do you want to be seated?' Mr. Adams was gratified, and heartily said, 'I am indeed a poor man, but I have a lady on my arm.' I give you my left hand, for the right, you see, is devoted to the fair. Do you want to be seated?' Mr. Adams was gratified, and heartily said, 'I am indeed a poor man, but I have a lady on my arm.'

CAPTAIN MILLIKEN was arrested and held to bail, for his appearance before an examining court on Monday next.

Political was the origin of the difficulty. We forgo any mention of the circumstances and facts in the case, as the affair has to undergo legal investigation.—Paducah Democrat.

BOSTON TRAVELLER, Jan. 5.

A MARRIAGE IN THE CARS.—In the cars, between Bangor and Portland, an incident occurred on Saturday morning, a little out of the usual course. Soon after the train left Bangor, the conductor, Mr. Pittman, who had provided himself with a clergyman, stood up in one of the cars, and, in the presence of the passengers, and called to the clergyman, 'How do you do, Mr. Adams? I am a poor man, but I have a lady on my arm.'

A STREET FIGHT, between Capt. Samuel Miller and Col. Bullock, at Fort Garry. The latter was shot, the ball entering the left thigh near the groin, and passing nearly through the thigh. The ball has been extracted and Col. Bacon is doing well, there being no doubt of his recovery.

CAPTAIN MILLIKEN was arrested and held to bail, for his appearance before an examining court on Monday next.

TUESDAY.....JANUARY 13, 1857.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

For CHAPS.—Persons troubled with roughness of the skin can find nothing superior to the Amadine and Glycerin Cream, one of a' preventive, the other a' cure. They are for sale at 74, Fourth street, opposite the National Hotel. d&w

The greatest preservative of beauty known to modern science, is Professor Wood's Hair Restorative and Cosmetic. Among the most important features of female beauty, is a luxuriant head of hair and a fine complexion, both of which should be guarded as a sacred treasure, for either may be lost by neglect, or preserved by the use of the above named article; delay is dangerous. To be had at the agents at 74 Fourth street. d2deodlw&w

GREAT EXCITEMENT.—Ninety-six Third street is crowded from morning till night. Everybody seems intent on buying Porter's Oriental Life Liniment; everybody uses it, and everybody likes it and tells their neighbors about it; consequently the demand is tremendous and constantly increasing. Besides the large amount sold at wholesale to the trade, the retail sales at the principal depot average 300 bottles per day. A whole ream of paper would not contain all the certificates that are voluntarily offered in its favor. For the cure of frostbites, chilblains, and chapped hands it is considered unparalleled by those who have used it. jand dw&w

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS.—We would respectfully invite the attention of persons, especially ladies, to our stock of black and fancy silks, embroideries and lace goods. A large stock of embroidered crêpe robes for evening, plaid cashmere, delaine, merino, velvet and cloth cloaks, shawls, plain and striped valances, which we are offering very low. We have a large stock of Welsh, ballardine and shaker flannel, linen, damask, napkins, towels, Irish linen, bleached sheeting, bleached cottons, best brand, which we are offering as low as they can be found in this or any other Western market. G. B. TABE.

Corner Fourth and Market streets.

If you find a fine likeness of yourself go to Housel & Co.'s National Picture Gallery, 88 Fourth street, between Market and Jefferson, over Talbot's variety store, and get one of those beautiful glass pictures, which for beauty and fidelity of features, expression and drapery, far surpass any other kind of pictures. Dark drapery produces a more pleasing effect on either children or adults. Dull weather is preferable to bright, except for small children. Children can be taken without fail, in from two to eight seconds. Prices from $1.00 to $15.00. d2s

NEW ALBANY & SALEM RAILROAD.—Dinner to St. Louis and Chicago.—This road is the speediest route to Chicago and the Northwest. Passengers leave the depot at New Albany at 12 M., and arrive at Chicago at 7 o'clock the following morning. This train connects at Terre Haute with the St. Louis and Cairo trains and with all the trains leaving Chicago in every direction.

The road is in capital condition and recently a number of splendid passenger cars have been put on it. An omnibus will call in any part of this city for passengers and deliver them at the depot in New Albany free of charge. This road is one of the best in the country and its management could be no better. It is the cheapest and most expeditious route for Chicago, St. Louis, and Cairo. It makes direct connection with all roads and for all points, East, West, and South.

For tickets or information apply at the office, Main street opposite the Galt House, if.

At Cost.—$30,000 WORTH OF FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS.—We would invite special attention to the advertisement of the firm of Miller & Taber, corner of Fourth and Market streets, and sold by Druggists everywhere.
